Pull Quote

"Success is Doing not Wishing."

Early Life and Education

His schooling started in Marawi City: Banggolo Elementary School (1994), then Marawi City National High School (1998), where he finished among the top seven.

At MSU, Fisheries Technology (2002) appears on his record, but Islamic Studies became his road.

In 2005 he earned his Bachelor of Arts in Islamic Studies, major in Shari'ah, at KFCIAAS, graduating Cum Laude and as Class Valedictorian.

That December he also received Civil Service Eligibility as an Honor Graduate under Presidential Decree No. 907.

The degrees kept coming. He completed his Juris Doctor at the MSU College of Law in 2016, an Advanced Certificate for Islamic Finance Practice from the ICIFE Islamic Finance Programme in the Philippines in 2018, and a Master of Arts in Islamic Studies, major in Muslim Law, at the MSU Graduate School in 2019.

Two Bar Examinations

In November 2008 he sat for the Special Shari'ah Bar Examinations at the Court of Appeals in Manila (November 9 and 16) and placed second.

He then took the 2020/2021 Philippine Bar Examinations, held at MSU-IIT in Iligan City on February 4 and 6, 2022. He passed, joining the batch widely remembered as the "Best Bar Ever," and became a member of the Integrated Bar of the Philippines.

Teaching Career

He started teaching right after college. From 2005 to 2008 he was a college instructor at Lanao Islamic Paramedical College Foundation, Inc. in Marawi City.

At the Philippine Muslim Teachers' College, he was a college instructor (2008 to 2012) and a professional lecturer (2010 to 2013).

He also taught in the College Bound Program of the former Pre-University Center from 2009 to 2014.

At KFCIAAS, he began as Instructor III on June 7, 2010. He became Assistant Professor IV in February 2019 and Associate Professor V on November 1, 2021.

Since 2019 he has been a professional lecturer at the MSU College of Law.

Administrative Roles

Alongside the classroom work, he handled the offices that keep a college running:

- Assistant Vice President for Administration and Finance, MSU (January 2016 to November 2018)
- College Secretary, KFCIAAS (2011 to 2014)
- Chairperson, Islamic Studies Department, KFCIAAS (2014 to 2015 and 2020 to 2022)
- Research Coordinator, KFCIAAS (Academic Years 2018 to 2019 and 2019 to 2020)
- Member, PEACE Education Committee

Dean of KFCIAAS

In 2025, he took over as Dean of KFCIAAS from Dr. Abdulcader M. Ayo, who moved up to Executive Vice President of the MSU System.

That put him at the head of the center where he studied, taught, and served as secretary, chairperson, and research coordinator.

Shari'ah Bar Review and Writings

Since 2009 he has been a regular Shari'ah Bar training lecturer and reviewer at the Shari'ah Training Center of the National Commission on Muslim Filipinos.

His review subjects are Islamic Jurisprudence (Fiqh), Customary Laws (Adat), Persons, Family Relations and Property, and Procedure in Shari'ah Courts.

His book Islamic Jurisprudence: A Comprehensive Reviewer (2017) became a familiar reference among law students, Shari'ah students, counselors, and lawyers.

His other works include:

- Questions and Answers: Islamic Law and Jurisprudence (2012), author
- "Status, Issues and Prospects on the Implementation and Enforcement of Muslim Code," written for the inaugural Shari'ah Newsletter of the Bangsamoro Attorney General's Office
- FPE101 Manual and Teacher's Guide, contributor

Public Engagement

In October 2025, a Bangsamoro bill requiring signages written in Arabic went to a roundtable discussion in Marawi City. Dean Abdulrahman spoke in support and added that giving the Moro languages a place on those signs would help build cultural unity and a shared regional identity.
