Early Life and Background

Dr. Naeem was born in Tetuan, Zamboanga City, to Mohammad Naeem and Rokarna T. Naeem. He traces his roots to the Tausug people of the Sulu archipelago, a community historically associated with Islamic scholarship, trade, and leadership in southern Philippines.

Growing up within this cultural context, his formation reflects both local identity and exposure to diverse environments, having completed part of his early education in Saudi Arabia.

Education

Dr. Naeem completed his Doctor of Medicine – Master of Public Health (MD–MPH) at the Ateneo de Zamboanga University School of Medicine (2019–2025), where he was recognized as an Academic Achievement Awardee in 2025.

The institution is known for its socially accountable medical education model, which emphasizes community immersion and service in underserved areas. This training framework shaped his orientation toward patient-centered care and public health practice.

Prior to medicine, he earned his Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN), graduating magna cum laude from Western Mindanao State University in 2019. He passed the Philippine Nursing Licensure Examination the same year.

His earlier education includes secondary and primary schooling in Jeddah and Makkah, Saudi Arabia, where he graduated in the top percentile of his class.

Physician Licensure Examination

In October 2025, Dr. Naeem ranked 9th nationwide in the Physician Licensure Examination administered by the Professional Regulation Commission, achieving a score of 88.92 percent.

His performance placed him among the top examinees in a national cohort of thousands of medical graduates and contributed to the strong showing of Ateneo de Zamboanga University School of Medicine during that examination cycle.

Research and Academic Work

Dr. Naeem has contributed to research focused on community health and culturally responsive medicine. His works include:

- Naeem, Y. T., Ynawat, R. A. (2025). The acceptance of traditional and alternative medicine among medical doctors in Zamboanga City. Philippine Journal of Health Research and Development.
- Naeem, Y. T. (2023). The acceptance of chlorination, boiling, SODIS, and Sawyer Water Filter as means of water purification in Barangay Sta. Cruz, Mahayag, Zamboanga del Sur. Western Mindanao Health Research Journal.

His research explores how medical practitioners engage with non-conventional healing practices, particularly in communities where traditional medicine remains part of everyday health behavior.

He also received several recognitions in research competitions, including:

- Poster Competition Winner, 6th Regional Health Research Summit (2024)
