Mahadi M. Pimping

Honoring the Legacy of Judge Mahadi (rahimahullah) Jurist, Statesman, and Peacemaker. 🕊️

He wore many hats across four decades of public service, and each one tells a piece of Mindanao's story.

Key Highlights:

🛃 Bureau of Customs Began his career in public service at the Bureau of Customs in Cagayan de Oro, handling tariffs and trade at one of Northern Mindanao's busiest ports.

🏛️ Local Government Leadership Entered local government service as Vice Mayor of Marawi City following the 1980 local elections. During his tenure, he witnessed and became part of the city's most significant milestones, the official adoption of the title "Islamic City of Marawi" through City Council Resolution No. 19-A on April 15, 1980. He also played a key leadership role during the city's political transition, assuming the office of Mayor in 1984 after the incumbent mayor was elected to the Batasang Pambansa.

Following his tenure as City Mayor, he served as Provincial Administrator of Lanao del Sur during the administration of his grandson, Governor Atty. Saidamen Pangarungan, in 1986.

🌾 Agrarian Justice Served as the Provincial Agrarian Reform Adjudicator (PARAD) for (DAR) in Lanao del Sur and Lanao del Norte, helping farmers to protect their rights to the land they cultivated and ensuring the fair administration of agrarian laws. In this capacity, he became known for resolving complex agrarian disputes with fairness and deep respect for the rule of law.

🏗️ Government Legal Service Rose to become Regional Legal Chief of the Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH), provided legal counsel involving major government infrastructure and public works projects across Central Mindanao.

⚖️ Judiciary Culminated his distinguished legal career as a Municipal Trial Court (MTC) Judge, dedicating himself to the fair and impartial administration of justice.

In addition to his government service, he was active in civic leadership. He served as President of the Rotary Club of Marawi, where he championed humanitarian service, community development, and fellowship.

🏠 Family

Judge Pimping was married to Bae Solaica "Fatima Zuhra" Tahir Malomalo Amai Manabilang Pangarungan-Pimping, who bears the royal title Bae Labi a Panoroganan sa Toros. Together, they were blessed with eight children.

Atty. Pimping's life was defined by unwavering public service, from customs administration to local governance, from legal advocacy to the judiciary, and from government leadership to community peacemaking. His legacy of integrity, justice, and compassion continues to inspire future generations.

See Also

- Marawi City
- Lanao del Sur
- Commission on Elections
- Municipal Trial Court

- Meranaw people

References

1. Family records and descendant testimonials, Racman-Pimping family archive.
2. Mahadi M. Pimping v. Commission on Elections, et al., G.R. No. L-69765-67, November 19, 1985.
3. Republic Act No. 9921 (2010), Congress of the Philippines.
4. Bar and institutional records, Manuel L. Quezon University.
5. Biography provided by Nabhani Pangarungan Pimping (https://www.facebook.com/mahed.pi.7)

Editorial Notice: BangsamoroPedia is a curated knowledge archive. Its pages are maintained by the editorial administrator to help ensure historical accuracy. If you would like to suggest corrections, share sources, or contribute information, please message the administrator through the official Facebook page: Notable Muslim Filipinos.

Jusge Mahadi M. Pimping

Born
April 1, 1943 Marawi City, Lanao del Sur, Philippines
Died
May 7, 2007 (aged 64)
Other Names
Mahadi Racman Pimping
Alma Mater
Manuel L. Quezon University (LL.B.)
Occupation
Jurist, government official, MTC Judge
Years Active
1960s–2000s
Political Party
Kilusang Bagong Lipunan (KBL)
Relatives
Faysah Racman Pimping Maniri Dumarpa (relative, former Congresswoman) Faydah M. Dumarpa (granddaughter, CHR Commissioner)
Notability
Atty. Pimping's life was defined by unwavering public service, from customs administration to local governance, from legal advocacy to the judiciary, and from government leadership to community peacemaking. His legacy of integrity, justice, and compassion continues to inspire future generations.

Known For
Serving across four branches of Philippine government (Customs, Agrarian Reform, Public Works, and the Judiciary), and for peaceful rido mediation rooted in Meranaw tradition.

Retrieved from "https://wiki.maranaw.com/index.php?title=Mahadi_M._Pimping&oldid=2964"